SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION TO ASSESS STORM DAMAGES

Property owners must report damages to counties

The Small Business Administration (SBA), in coordination with the Delaware Emergency Management Agency, the Department of Health and Social Services, and the three counties will be conducting damage assessments throughout the state on September 20, 2011, for homeowners, renters, and businesses that experienced damage and flooding from Hurricane Irene. Those individuals that have not previously contacted their respective counties and identified damages are urged to do so at the numbers below:

New Castle County: 1-302-395-5555

Kent County: 1-302-735-3465

Sussex County: 1-302-855-7801

City of Wilmington: 1-302-576-2489

Please indicate the extent of damage, provide contact information, and inform the county if you have homeowners', renters', or flood insurance.
